- ○ Applicants who have graduated or are expected to graduate from a foreign institution must submit original academic transcripts and graduation (or expected graduation) certificates. The documents must include the address of the issuing institution for academic credential verification purposes.
- ○ Applicants to the Master of Architecture Program who fail to obtain approval for the Course Completion Verification Form will not be eligible to apply.
- ○ All application forms and templates are available on the International Service Center website under [Forms & Downloads].
- ○ For international applicants who do not have a Korean mobile phone number, notices and important announcements will be sent by e-mail. Applicants are responsible for checking their e-mail regularly.
  ※ For inquiries, please use the message board on the Jinhak Apply website www.jinhakapply.com or contact the Jinhak Apply Help Desk at +82-1544-7715.

06 | Admission Results and Important Notices

○ Admission results will be posted on the International Service Center website. Individual notifications will not be provided.

○ Admission and enrollment will be canceled if any of the following circumstances are discovered after admission results are announced. (* Any fees paid, including the application fee and tuition, will not be refunded.)

☞ If, through academic credential verification with the applicant's previous institution(s) in Korea or abroad, any submitted document or information is found to be false, forged, or fraudulent, or if admission was obtained through any improper means, the applicant's admission and enrollment will be revoked.

○ Additional Grounds for Cancellation

- After admission results are announced, admission and enrollment may be canceled if:

.A health condition is identified that is likely to cause significant difficulty in studying and living in Korea;

.The applicant fails to obtain a Korean student visa (D-2);

.The applicant fails to complete registration within the designated registration period.

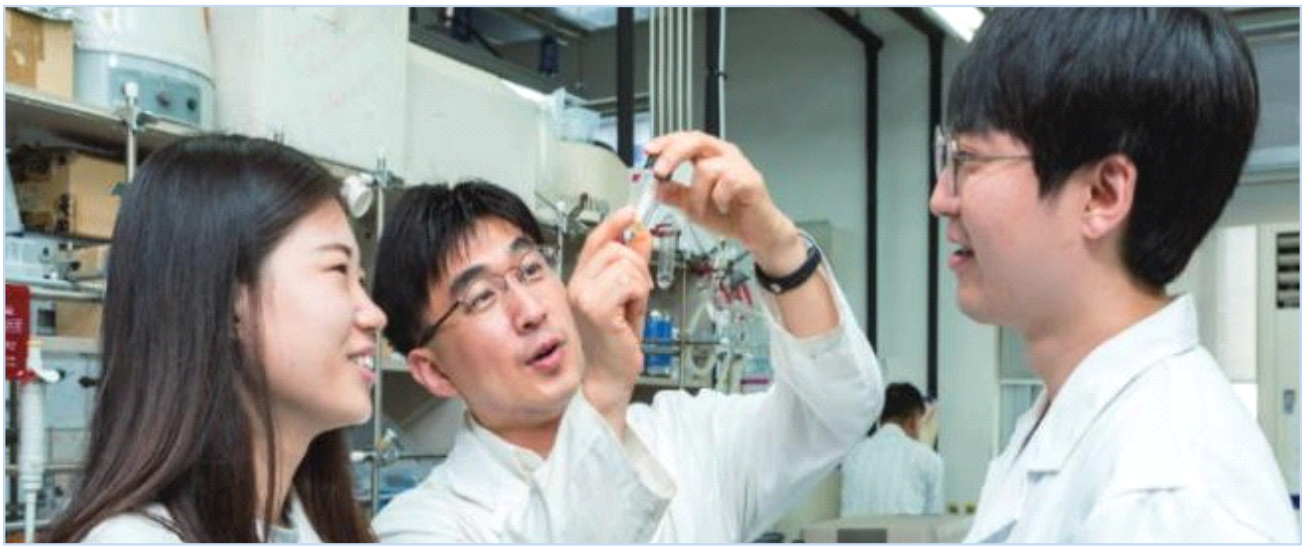

○ Requirements for Expected Graduates

- Applicants who are expected to graduate at the time of application must submit a Certificate of Expected Graduation and an Academic Transcript by the document submission deadline. Failure to do so will result in disqualification.
- Applicants admitted as expected graduates must, after paying tuition, submit one original copy each of the final Graduation Certificate (Degree Certificate) and Academic Transcript to the International Service Center either in person or by registered mail no later than February 26, 2027 (Fri).

※ Failure to submit the required documents by the deadline will result in cancellation of admission.

○ Registration: Admitted applicants who fail to complete registration within the designated registration period will be deemed to have declined admission, and their admission offer will be canceled.

○ Other Matters: Any admission-related matters not specified in this Admissions Guide shall be determined by the Graduate School Committee of Incheon National University.

07 | Scholarships (*Subject to change)

(For detailed information regarding scholarships, please contact +82-32-835-8012 or email gradinu@inu.ac.kr.)

1 Full-Tuition Scholarship (Award Amount: Full tuition coverage throughout the prescribed period of study (mandatory enrollment semesters))

Program	Selection Criteria and Important Notes
General requirement	○ Awarded to newly admitted international graduate students. ○ Each academic advisor may recommend up to two newly admitted international students per year, regardless of degree level (Master's, Doctoral, or Integrated Master's-Doctoral Program). (This quota is separate from the quota for full-tuition scholarships awarded to domestic students.) ※For departments designated as advanced/high-tech disciplines by the Ministry of Education, each department is recognized separately for scholarship recommendation purposes. ○ Obligation: Recipients must submit research output(s) as required by the scholarship regulations. ○ If the academic advisor is changed, the scholarship eligibility will be revoked and the scholarship amount may be fully recovered. However, scholarship eligibility may be retained if the change falls within the annual recommendation quota of the new academic advisor.
Master's Program (Standard Period of Study: 4 Semesters) Doctoral Program (Standard Period of Study: 4 Semesters) Integrated Master's and Doctoral Program (Standard Period of Study: 8 Semesters)	○ For newly admitted students: Master's/Doctoral applicants must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher in their bachelor's/Master's degree program. ○ Recipients must continue to satisfy all eligibility requirements* throughout their period of enrollment.[1)] ○ Continuing students must be enrolled on a full-time basis and maintain a GPA of 3.50 or higher each semester. * Criteria for Maintaining Scholarship Eligibility To remain eligible for the scholarship, recipients must meet the following requirements: ① Academic Performance: Maintain the required GPA based on the previous semester's academic record. ② Full-Time Status: Maintain full-time student status and a valid D-2 visa. F-4 visa holders must submit proof of enrollment in the Four Major Social Insurance Programs or a confirmation letter from their academic advisor verifying full-time status. ③ Continuous Enrollment: Maintain enrollment throughout the scholarship period. Leave of absence or withdrawal is not permitted, except in cases of pregnancy, childbirth, childcare, or visa issuance denial. ④ Academic Advisor: The academic advisor must remain unchanged. A change of advisor will result in loss of scholarship eligibility unless the student falls within the annual recommendation quota of the new advisor. ⑤ Force Majeure: The requirement in Item ③ does not apply in cases of natural disasters or illnesses requiring long-term hospitalization. ⑥ Other Exceptions: Additional exceptions may be granted with the approval of the Dean of the Graduate School. ⑦ In relation to ①, if a student was registered in the immediately preceding semester with eligibility for a full tuition scholarship but has no grades for that semester, eligibility may be maintained based on the grades from the most recent semester in which grades were obtained.
